CHASE IS ENDED

Harry Tracy Keeps Good Determination Not to Be Taken Alive.

BLOWS OUT HIS BRAINS

Notorious Desperado Takes His Own Life That He Might Outwit Jack Ketch.

Posse Finally Got the Fellow In Close Quarters and Drove Him to Suicide.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 7.—Carrying out his declaration that he would never be taken alive, Harry Tracy, the outlaw, surrounded by a posse, all hope of escape gone, put a revolver to his head and blew his brains out.

Thus ends a chase which had been kept up almost unceasingly since June 9 last, when Tracy broke from the state prison, killing three guards in so doing.

Tracy was finally run to cover in a wheatfield near Fellows, Wash. In the fight with the sheriff's posse which ensued Tracy was wounded in the right leg, between the knee and the thigh, and twenty minutes later, knowing that his capture was certain, he killed himself with a revolver.

Tracy was surrounded in a wheatfield near Fellows, a station on the Washington Central railroad, about 50 miles west of Spokane. Word was sent back to Davenport, the county seat, and a large number of armed men hurried to the scene. Sheriff Gardner was in charge of the posse that ended Tracy's career.

The revolver with which Tracy killed himself was grasped tightly in his right hand. The bullet which struck his leg cut an artery and he bled profusely. He tried to tie it, and failing, he put his revolver to his head and fired. Creston citizens, who made up the larger part of the posse, will claim the reward.

The death was intensely tragic. For two days Tracy had terrorized the occupants of the Eddy ranch, out in the Lake Creek country, three miles from the little siding of Fellows, on the Central Washington railroad. Then five determined citizens of Creston, hearing of his presence there, took their rifles and revolvers and went after him. They knew their men and acted accordingly. When Tracy ran they plunged boldly after him. Sighting the men and securing his rifle, Tracy sought cover behind a haystack, escaping several rifle bullets. The posse then found cover behind a large rock and for a while it looked like a siege. Then Tracy broke for a large boulder lying on the edge of a small wheatfield, and this dash was his undoing, for just as he came to the rock he fell forward, a rifle bullet having broken one leg. He plunged into the wheat, leaving a bloody trail.

After receiving the wound, he crawled 75 yards on his hands and knees in order to reach a spot that would command the posse and enable him to fire upon them. But once only was he able to fire from this vantage point. Then, weakened by loss of blood, he tried to staunch his wound, failed, and with his revolver sent a bullet through his brain. None of the posse was wounded, though all of them had narrow escapes. When they were firing from the cover of their rock they had to lift their heads above the cover, and every time this was done Tracy's rifle rang out and a bullet chipped the rock.

WILL GET REWARD

Posse Entitled to It Says Governor Geer

Salem, Ore., Aug. 7.—Governor Geer has received a telegram from Constable C. A. Straub of Creston, Wash., telling of Harry Tracy's suicide. He telegraphed Sheriff Gardner of Lincoln county, Wash., suggesting that the body be embalmed and forwarded to Seattle for identification by the Washington authorities for the purpose of paying the reward, and asking that the body be forwarded from Seattle to Salem to the Oregon authorities. Governor Geer stands ready to pay the reward to the man responsible for his death. No one has been sent from here to identify the remains, but Deputy Warden A. C. Dilly of the prison, who is on a vacation, is believed to have gone to Spokane with the governor's secretary, Walter Lyon, and he will identify the remains.

Governor Geer, when asked if he considered that the men who surrounded and wounded Outlaw Harry Tracy are entitled to the reward, said: "Yes, I do. The posse surrounding him was the cause of his committing suicide to save hanging and as such to be credited with his death and reward for it as though they had killed him directly."

The reward offered for Tracy amounts to $4,100, as follows: State of Oregon, $1,500; state of Washington, $2,500; brother of J. D. Ferrell, one of the guards killed by Tracy, $100.

NINE KILLED

Crew of Work Train Disobeyed Orders and Wreck Followed.

Marshalltown, Ia., Aug. 7.—Yesterday afternoon a work train and a freight train collided on the Omaha division of the St. Paul road two miles west of Rhodes, Ia., killing both engineers instantly as well as seven laborers. Twenty others, all laborers, were injured. It appears that the work train, in charge of Conductor Craig, started west from Rhodes without orders and notwithstanding the fact that the signal was set against the work train and that the telegraph operator informed Conductor Craig that the freight train had already left Collins, the next station west of Rhodes, and was then eastbound between the two places.

The officials of the company are utterly at a loss to explain the conduct of Conductor Craig and that of the engineer of the work train in leaving Rhodes without orders, with the signal set against their train and the information that another train was on its way. Relief trains were sent out promptly and every aid was given to the injured men.

Train Robber Foiled.

Fort Worth, Tex., Aug. 7.—The southbound fast express on the Rock Island was boarded at Chickasha, I. T., by a man who made a determined effort to hold up the train. The would-be robber encountered brakeman D. W. Carpenter on the rear platform of the last car and a desperate struggle ensued in which Carpenter was shot three times through the hand. In the scuffle the pistol was knocked from the robber's hand to the track. The man then, managed to pull the automatic air valve. When the train slowed down he dropped off and escaped without securing any booty.

Basis of Settlement

Saginaw, Mich., Aug. 7.—At a meeting of representatives of the mine operators and officials of the district mine workers' organization in this city yesterday, a basis of settlement of the strike that has been in progress since April 1 last, was agreed upon by the amendment of two sections of the joint scale submitted July 2, which heretofore could not be agreed upon. Those present agreed to abide by the arrangement and to use their good offices in securing its acceptance by the mine workers.

Young Women Killed

Hopkinsville, Ky., Aug. 7.—An excursion train on the Illinois Central caught five young ladies on a high trestle at Dawson Springs yesterday afternoon. Miss Johnny Smith, Paducah, Ky., and Lucy Stevenson, Hickory Grove, Ky., were crushed to death and the others, jumping, were probably fatally injured. All were young women who were sojourning at the springs.

PROPERTY RUINED

Collieries to the Value of a Million and a Half Rendered Useless.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT

State Mine Inspector Talks of the Flooded Mines in the Anthracite District.

Lack of Workmen Has Permitted the Collieries to Become Filled With Water.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 7.—William Stein, the state mine inspector for the Shenandoah region, announces that five collieries under his jurisdiction which have an estimated total value of $1,500,000 have been rendered useless by reason of having been flooded and have been permanently abandoned. Four of them—Bear Run, East Bear Ridge, Kohlineer and Preston No. 3—belong to the Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron company, and he places their value at about $300,000 each. The other colliery is the Lawrence and is owned by the Shafer estate of Pottsville and also represents about $300,000. Mr. Stein estimates that out of the thirty-six collieries in his district, only fourteen are in condition for immediate operation if the strike were ended. The others are in such a condition that it would require anywhere from one to four months to clear them of water and make repairs. He said the average time would be about two months. The abandonment of the five collieries will compel 2,000 mine workers to seek employment in other parts of the region, and they may have trouble in finding it if the thousands of men who have left the region during the strike should return. This condition of affairs, the mine inspector said, is a serious matter not only with the companies, but also with the men. After the strike shall have been ended most of the workmen will have to remain in idleness for another period of time until the collieries are placed in working condition. In the coalfields south of here Mr. Stein said the situation is about as bad. But in the Wyoming and Lackawanna region the mines are in much better condition. The mine inspector's statement created considerable interest here, as it confirmed the belief of some of the coal company officials that a full resumption of coal mining will not take place this year, and in consequence the tendency of coal prices will be upward rather than downward.

CONTEMPT OF COURT

Peter Power Will Have Time to Change His Mind

New York, Aug. 7.—The branch of the Peter Power suit started to attempt to upset the Northern Pacific merger in which the attorneys for the power have been attempting to get Mr. Power into court for the purpose of examining him, reached an acute stage late yesterday before Judge LaCombe in the United States circuit court. After some short proceedings the court entered an order committing Mr. Power for thirty days. He also ordered George Alfred Lamb, counsel for Mr. Power, to appear Aug. 20 to show cause why he (Mr. Lamb) should not be suspended or admonished for unprofessional conduct in connection with the case. The occasion for the orders was that though Mr. Power had been repeatedly ordered into court, he had paid no attention to the summons and it was believed was acting under the advice of his counsel in disregarding them.

Thombs Must Hang.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Practically the last chance of Louis Thombs to escape the gallows disappeared last night when word was received that no justice of the supreme court would grant a writ of superseades. Thombs was convicted of the murder of Carrie Larsen, whom he had enticed aboard the steamer Peerless by advertising for a cook. When she attempted to repel him he strangled her and thrust her body into the river, making a hole in the ice for the purpose. The governor had already declined to interfere.

Roschill Was Slow.

Yokohama, Aug. 7.—Japan has won the race for possession of Marcus island, supposed to contain valuable deposits of guano. The cruiser Kasagi has returned to Tokyo, after landing a small detachment of marines on the island to hold the place until the title of ownership shall have been finally settled by diplomatic correspondence between the United States and Japan. When the Kasagi started back Captain Roschill, the American, who left Honolulu for Marcus island, had not arrived.

The son was captured and lodged in the Vienna jail.

Corporation of London Celebrates Conclusion of Peace

London, Aug. 7.—The corporation of the city of London celebrated the conclusion of peace in South Africa last night with a reception in the Guild Hall tendered jointly to Lord Roberts, commander-in-chief of the forces, and Lord Kitchener. Both guests were presented with addresses commemorating their distinguished war services, and, in the case of Lord Kitchener, paying special tribute to his conduct of the negotiations which led to the surrender of the Boers. Twenty-five hundred guests were present at the reception; they applauded the distinguished soldiers, surrounded them and shook them by the hands. Most of the members of the cabinet were prevented from attending the reception by their parliamentary duties, but the notable assemblage included foreign coronation guests of the country, the colonial premiers, ministers, generals and high naval officials.

Hanna Applauded

Urbana, Ohio, Aug. 7.—Senator M. A. Hanna addressed the Urbana Chautauqua yesterday on the topic, "Labor and Its Relation to Capital." The audience was nearly 3,000 that greeted him at the tabernacle when he arose to speak. The senator was first given the Chautauqua salute, a waving of handkerchiefs, and then greeted by hearty applause. His address was frequently and vigorously applauded. It was purely extemporaneous and was largely devoted to an explanation of the origin, aims and accomplishments of the Civic Federation, of which Senator Hanna is president.

Set Forth Clearly.

Rome, Aug. 7.—The Vatican has shown much interest in the interview with Archbishop Ireland in St. Paul on July 22, in which the archbishop said the pope and other Roman authorities were delighted with Governor Taft and with the course of the negotiations between him and the Vatican. The Vatican officials agree that Archbishop Ireland clearly and happily sets forth the true spirit of the intercourse between the Vatican and the United States.

Council Vacancy.

Councilman A. D. Eldridge having moved out of the Second ward into the First he has tendered his resignation as Councilman of the Second ward. This will be regretted generally by the residents of the Second Ward whose interests he has well represented. Mr. Eldridge has made an excellent councilman. He is honest, conservative and a man of superior judgment. It is probable that Perry A. Jones will be elected to succeed Mr. Eldridge at the council meeting tonight, though the democratic members have not all agreed to such an action. Some of them are strongly opposed to him and are demanding the election of Benj. Pettig. Some of the rounders are trying to get the forces together today.

Seymour Tourists Cartooned.

Alpha Cox has had a tip from the Seymour crowd who are journeying to San Francisco and has produced a cartoon accordingly. The crowd seems to be weary and thinking of home. On the rear of the train stand Dr. Graessle, W. G. Gelle and Ed Rinne singing "Take me back to Indiana." On top of the car is George Peter with a field glass looking for Seymour. Cal Dobbins is looking for anything familiar. W. L. Johnson is looking for some kind of a freak and Tom Groub is on the lookout for an Indian. See cartoon in Mr. Cox's window.

A Cure for Cholera Infantum.

"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Bookwater, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling him I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered, and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by C. W. Milhous.

Bought Stolen Corn Silk.

The Indianapolis papers say that John B. McCoy, formerly of this city, and his partner in the McCoy-Howe Company, Aaron Howe, were brought into court Wednesday to answer to the charge of receiving corn silk that had been stolen from farmers. No one here who knows John McCoy will believe that he was knowingly guilty of any wrong doing. Of the ease the Journal says: Jennie Durand, Alice Brackett and Grace Casey, charged with stealing corn silk and damaging about 380 bushels of corn near Indianapolis, were tried in Police Court. They said they had procured the corn silk for the McCoy-Howe Chemical Company, on West Georgia street, where it was used in making "blood medicine." When Judge Stubbs heard this he ordered warrants issued for the arrest of J. B. McCoy and Aaron Howe. They were arrested in the afternoon, but were allowed to go on their own recognizance. "Mr. McCoy explained the situation as follows: 'The women called us up twice and asked us how much corn silk we would need this year. We told them we would require between 500 and 1,000 pounds. We bought corn silk from them last year. Mrs. Durand said she had a contract with a corn grower to get it. She said nothing to us this year about where she was to get the corn silk.'"

Mrs. R. M. J. Cox returned home Friday from a two weeks' visit with her children at Seymour. She is expecting two grand children, a boy and a girl, from Boston, Mass., who will make their home with her. They are orphan children of her son Samuel and wife, whose recent deaths have been mentioned in these columns.—Brownstown Banner.

Settling the "Tip" Question.

The awkward question of the tip was solved by a big New Englander from the state of Maine who was dining in a London restaurant the other evening. Having paid his bill, he was informed by the waiter that what he had paid did "not include the waiter."

This was "bankers' day" before the state tax board, and many bankers from over Indiana were expected to attend the session. In the past banks have fared well before county boards, but this year in all parts of the state it seemed that an epidemic of high assessments against them had spread. Most of them turned up with assessments of about 100 cents on the dollar, and the bankers have not relished the innovation. But the additional revenue will not be allowed to pass lightly by the state board, it is believed, and while there may be some small reductions, there is a general impression that the appeals from the county boards have been in vain.

Navy Deserters Taken. Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 7.—William Evans and Charles Kirkendall, charged with deserting from the United States gunboat Dixie March 16, 1901, were arrested here yesterday. Both young men reside on farms northeast of Warsaw, but had not been heard from until they came home Tuesday. Officers here have carried warrants for their arrest for more than a year. Evans and Kirkendall were taken to Norfolk, Va., navy yard at once.

Red Men's Pow Wow. Greencastle, Ind., Aug. 7.—Four thousand Red Men are here today attending the Wabash Valley powwow. The city is filled with visitors, and special trains have come from surrounding towns. CHELSEA'S NOTED BUNS. All London Used to Visit Mrs. Hands on Good Friday.

However religious observances may change in England, the eating of hot cross buns on Good Friday is not likely to die out. Still, enthusiasm in this particular has considerably declined since the days when Mrs. Hands kept the Chelsea Bun House at the corner of Jews' row, now Pineloe road. So many people were in the habit of flocking there on Good Friday in order to eat hot cross buns that on one occasion 50,000 persons assembled there, and £250 was taken in the day for buns alone. After this the inhabitants of Chelsea protested against the noise and disturbance this caused, and Mrs. Hands, fearing to be restrained by the law, issued in 1793 a quaint proclamation, stating how, "desirous, therefore, of testifying her regard and obedience to those laws by which she is happily protected, she is determined, though much to her loss, not to sell cross buns on that day to any person whatever, but Chelsea buns as usual."

This Mrs. Hands was something of a character in her own way. The royal family and many of the aristocracy used to visit her in the morning, and Queen Charlotte even presented her with a silver half gallon mug containing 5 guineas. The house remained in the possession of her family for some time, as Sir Richard Phillips, writing a few years before its destruction, mentions. After admitting that for upward of thirty years he had never passed the house without filling his pockets, he goes on to say, "These buns have afforded a competency and even wealth to four generations of the same family, and it is singular that their delicate flavor, lightness and richness have never been successfully imitated." When Ranelagh was closed, the Bun House declined in popularity, though as late as 1839 24,000 buns were sold on Good Friday alone.—London Chronicle.

POWERFUL VOICES.

Some Historic Shriekers Who Antedated the Famous Stentor.

The question has often been asked, "Who was the most loud voiced man of history?" The answer usually is that it was Stentor, of whom Homer says his voice was as loud as that of fifty other men combined and from which we get the phrase "stentorian voiced." But we have record of two historic "shriekers" anterior to Homer. We read where Simeon and Levi fought against the twelve men of the city of Sarton and that Levi beheaded one man with his own sword. In chapter 38, verse 41, of the book referred to the story is related in the following words: "And the sons of Jacob seeing that they could not prevail over the twelve, Simeon gave a loud and tremendous shriek, and the eleven remaining men were stunned by the awful shriek." In chapter 39, same book, verse 19, we find the following account of the battles of the sons of Jacob with the inhabitants of the city of Gassah. It seems as though the battle was both in the front and in the rear and that the warriors on the wall were throwing spears and hurling stones upon the sons of Jacob. What next occurred, as related in chapter and verse above cited, is recorded in these words: "And Judith, seeing that the men of Gassah were getting too heavy for them, gave a piercing and tremendous shriek, and all the men of Gassah were terrified at Judah's cry, and men fell from the wall at the sound of his powerful shriek, and all those that were without as well as those within the city were greatly afraid of their lives."

Supply Practically Inexhaustible. "Don't you ever run out of material for plays?" asked the admiring friend. "Great Scott, no!" exclaimed the prolific writer of burlesque operas. "Look at this pile of blank paper and all these writing implements, will you?"—Exchange.

State Fair Jubilee.

The Indiana State Fair will, the week of September 15, celebrate its golden jubilee at Indianapolis. For a year the State Board of Agriculture has been planning and bending its energies to make this, the fiftieth anniversary a memorable one, and pioneers who attend from over the state will not find it difficult to see that the fair has multiplied in quality and quantity many times since the first one was held at Indianapolis in 1852. Before the first fair could be held a fair ground had to be borrowed from the Madison County Agricultural Society, and the state was, in fact, a borrower of county fair grounds for several years in the beginning, but this year the fair will be held on a tract covering 214 acres costing, with improvements, $300,000, and the property belongs to the State Board.

The plans for the golden jubilee are well in hand and the fair management is now busy working out details. Two months ago the exhibits entered in some departments were so large that more room had to be provided. Not only from over Indiana, but many other states exhibits are coming and it is a serious question as to how the fair grounds can take care of all of them.

Lon Mitchell Returns.

Alonzo Mitchell, who left home somewhat mysteriously Monday evening, returned Wednesday evening. He was first discovered by some of the residents in the south-west part of town dodging through the alleys as if he feared he would be apprehended. He went into the house of one of the neighbors and asked for something to eat, saying that he had not eaten anything since Monday.

When questioned where he had been he was unable to give a good account of himself. He talked incoherently showing plainly that his mind was unbalanced. He said he had been hiding in the weeds and bushes to avoid capture, imagining that he was in great danger all the time. He also stated that he had been to the river and had waded in the water. Since his return he has been put under the care of a physician.

Commissioners Adjourned.

The regular August term of the Commissioners' Court adjourned Wednesday evening for the term. After the regular claims were allowed there were several matters of general interest taken up.

D. H. Hogg, of Vernon township, and Edward Elsner, of Redding township, were designated as students to Purdue.

J. M. Smith was appointed justice of the peace in Brownstown township, and M. V. Beem was appointed to same office in Carr township.

Remonstrances were filed with the board against granting licenses to retail liquor in Seymour to George Brocker and John Elm. Brocker made no contest, but the legality of the remonstrance against Elm was contested Wednesday. The application of Elm was dismissed on the motion of the attorney for the remonstrators.

The petition of Geo. A. Robertson and John B. Burrell for a right of way to construct an electric line over certain public highways of the county was not acted upon. The route they propose is from the county line north of Reddington to Seymour and from Seymour through Brownstown to Vallonia, and on to Millport. Branches are proposed to Medora and Sparksville and from Seymour to Cortland and Freetown.

The matter of reports on the proposed Mutton Creek ditch occupied considerable time Wednesday. It seems that most of the objections that were raised to the construction of the ditch and assessments have been withdrawn or overcome and that in time all differences will be adjusted and work will proceed. Final action was postponed until next term.

GIVING THE DEVIL HIS DUE.

Another Stirring Meeting in the Gospel Tent.

If Old Nick was near enough to hear Dr. Smiley last night, and there is a widespread belief that, abandoned as he is, he goes to church, even as he attended a meeting of the "Sons of God" in heaven in the tent of Job—if he was near enough to hear that sermon last night he must have been glad he could hide his head without much trouble. Talk about giving the devil his due—he got it then.

But the preacher's object was not so much to shame the devil as to make those men and women present who hobnob and fraternize with him feel like thirty cents, and to show them how they are being taken in.

The sermon last night was about "Fighting Against God." "Some people," said the preacher, "say 'Why don't God kill the devil, if he is so strong?' My friends, the devil is the father of liars. If God should kill the devil this world would be full of orphans. Sometimes poor, ignorant folks defy God to strike them dead and think, when he doesn't, that they have proved there is no God. But God is not fighting the sinners, you are fighting him. Why, if God were fighting the sinner, the war would soon end—a breath from His nostrils and all would be over."

The evangelist got after those people who move into a town and, though they were church members before coming, do not deposit their church letters. He likened them to deserters. A story was told of a boy who got to rummaging in his mother's trunk and was heard laughing immoderately. When the cause of his merriment was looked up it was discovered that, to use his own words, he had found his "mother's religion" in the bottom of her trunk. "Get your religion out of your trunks. Don't be deserters, don't be found fighting against God." One lady later in the evening handed him her church letter for the pastor of one of the churches.

In the after-meeting someone asked prayers for a councilman. "Ah," said Dr. Smiley "we need to pray for city officials. It is not an easy matter to be an official in any of these towns now-a-days. The devil is trying to run things, to trample under his cloven hoofs all our rights and privileges. Yes, pray for all the officials of Seymour."

The meeting last night was very largely attended. As on Tuesday night more people came than could be comfortably seated. It was a delightfully cool evening. Few fans could be seen and a good many found wraps comfortable. It was just right, evidently for singing, for the people took hold of their favorite songs with vim. This part of the service steadily improves.

Today and tomorrow the afternoon meetings are to be held in the Methodist church and the subjects are to be "The Purpose of Filling With the Spirit" and "Acquisition of the Divine Dynamic." Yesterday's discussion was strong, clear and helpful. Many beauties of the scripture are being uncovered in these afternoon meetings.

Tonight Dr. Smiley is to preach on "Conversion," a bible definition, and hopes to make it so simple that a child will understand. His past sermons lead to the expectation that he will succeed in doing so.

Reporters are not generally supposed to know much about religious matters and their opinions of spiritual things are usually regarded as utterly worthless, but they like to think themselves capable of appreciating and of speaking with some measure of wisdom of a sphere that is as properly theirs as anybody's else. This reporter thinks the forces that make for righteousness in Seymour are being greatly stimulated and augmented in these meetings and that they will prove a lasting benefit to the churches and the city. And, personally, he will be sorry when the time comes to stop making copy in the canvass-back meetings. Just when that will be is not yet clear.
